DEDICATION

As we recollect these past four years at Central Catholic High school, many pleasant memories come to mind; our hopes, our dreams, and our crazy schemes. But most important is the love that has grown between the members of our class and the faculty.

Therefore, this book is dedicated to the class of 1982. Through the victories, defeats, good times, and bad times, the Senior class has grown as one and their spirit has continually flourished. We would like to wish the Senior class the best of everything. Remember, the future is ours — live it to the fullest!

Diocesan Leaders Promote Better Education

During his many years as director of C.C.H.S. Rev. Msgr. Raymond J. Lechner has never tired in his efforts to advance Catholic Education in our school community. He has been a dynamic force behind the development of Catholic Education in the Lehigh Valley.

Dr. James J. Cusimono, director of the diocesan staff, assures Catholic training by making school not only an educational institution, but a community of discovery and growth as well.

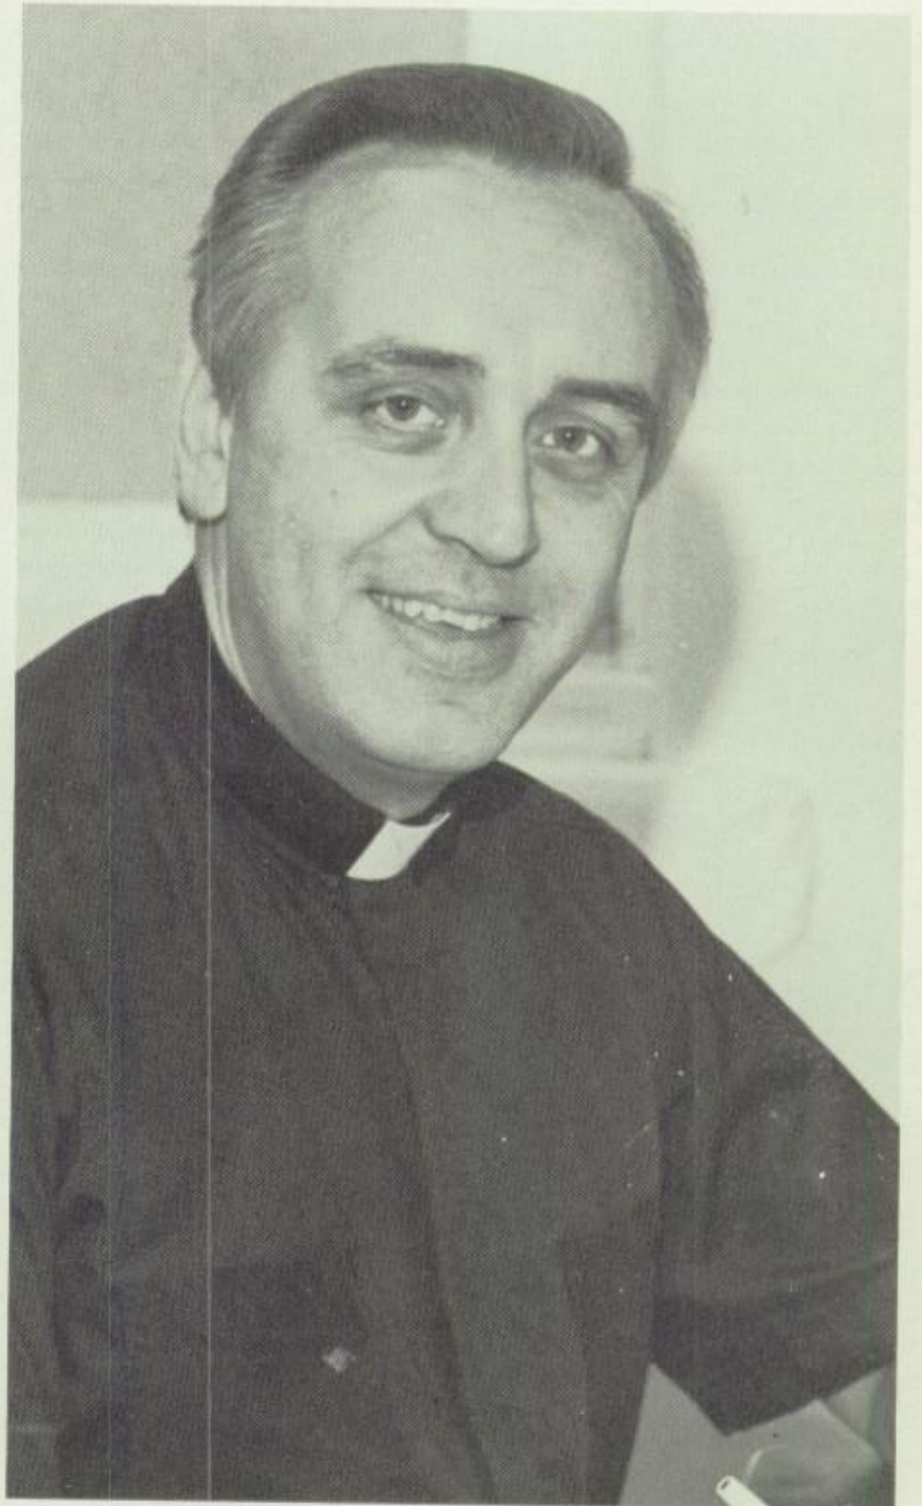

Valuable Administration

Our principal, Mr. James Hodrick, proved, as always, to be a vital part in the school's success. He constantly gives time and advice to the students.

Mr. Hodrick's co-workers are Rev. John Denburger and Mr. William Tielman. Fr. Denburger, Vice-Principal and Head of Religious Affairs, continues to guide the students in all religious phases. Mr. Tielman's added responsibility of organizing drives for the school did not hinder his other duties as a valuable administrative assistant and mediator between students and administration.

Efforts of Discipline Aid in an Effective Year

Returning to the position of Dean of Students this year is Sr. Judith Cleary. Assisting her is Mrs. Sylvia Spirk, secretary, and Mrs. Thelma Schmidt in the attendance office. Their fine efforts helped in making this year at C.C.H.S. a productive one.

Counselors Guide Students Toward Future Goals

The Guidance Office combined the services of three counselors, Mrs. Mary Miller, Sister Miriam Patrice, and Sister Kathleen Moran, proved to be valuable to the students and faculty by providing a guidance library full of information about colleges and careers. As guidance secretary, Mrs. Kitty Miller was helpful in keeping the office in order with her efficient secretarial skills.

Secretaries Keep Things Together in the Main Office

Once again, the job of keeping organization in the Main Office this year was held by Mrs. Joan Liles, Mrs. Helen Neubauer, school nurses Mrs. Jean Geary, and Mrs. Dolores Buchman. Their hard work was greatly appreciated by everyone.

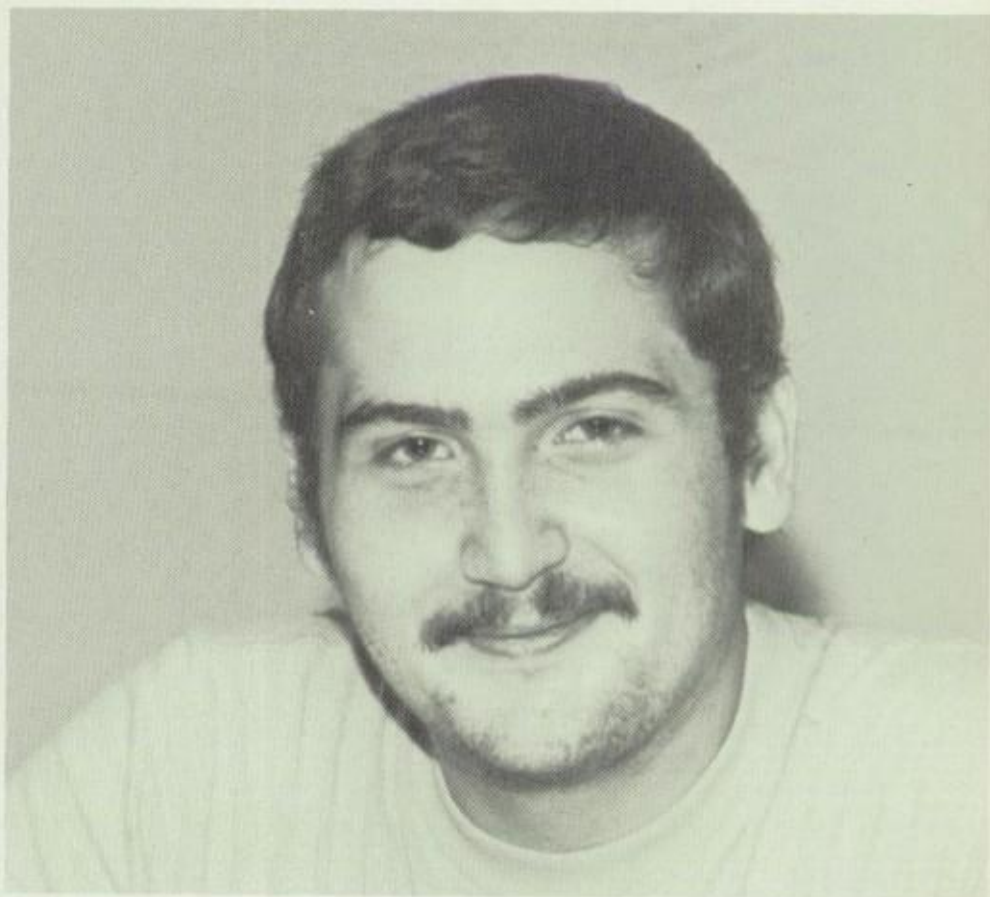

Valuable Staff Helps to Solve Problems

Tackling the tough job of maintenance again this year at Central are Mr. Leo Stelzman and Mr. Peter Krah.

Working busily at keeping everyone happy in the cafeteria are Mrs. Dorothy Wertman and Mrs. Jean Jacobs.

Juniors Lead Enthusiastically

Looking forward to their senior year, the junior class is filled with enthusiasm. Sparked by President Kara Kasprenski, Vice-President Sean Tyler, Secretary Molly Hagerty, and Treasurer Megan Fitzpatrick, along with the guidance of Sr. Maureen Christi, they will be terrific future leaders of our school.

Sophomores Grow in Responsibility

This year, the sophomore class has "come out" and established themselves into our Central family. Friendships are now rooted. With the guidelines of President Greg Buchman, Vice-President Michele Steber, Secretary Colleen Fitzpatrick, and Treasurer Lisa Dellacrose, they will truly have a successful year under the moderation of Sr. Kathleen.

"Roving Reporters"

The 1981-82 Seneschal staff, with the guidance of Sr. Ann Denis, conveyed every facet of Central life through our school newspaper.

Led by co-editors, Ann Ellen Wynne and Jill D'Annibale, our future journalists offered detailed records through news articles, editorials, sports reviews, student opinions, and cartoons, including different special features each issue.

Memory Makers

To continue in the "Glen Echoes" Tradition was difficult, but this year's staff worked countless hours in and out of school to produce another great yearbook.

Hard work and patience was needed to write and correct copies, plan accurate layouts, and choose appropriate pictures, which result in a book that reflects all the memorable experiences, special events, and numerous activities of the school year.

Service With a Smile

With the assistance of Sr. Florian, T.C.A. unselfishly served the needs of our community. The National Honor Society with their newly appointed advisor, Sr. Marian Gerard, serves the student body by offering a tutoring program aimed at helping those who need assistance in their academic studies.

Catch the Spirit

Helping students to "catch the spirit" and encouraging athletic teams to do their best are the main objectives of the CCHS Pep Club. Led by President Ann-Ellen Wynne, Vice-President Lou Nagy, Secretary Margie Kochanasz, Treasurer Kathy Hackforth, and Mr. Rosenberger, as moderator, they encourage Viking fans to show their pride and spirit through signs, caravans, and pep rallies.

SPORTS

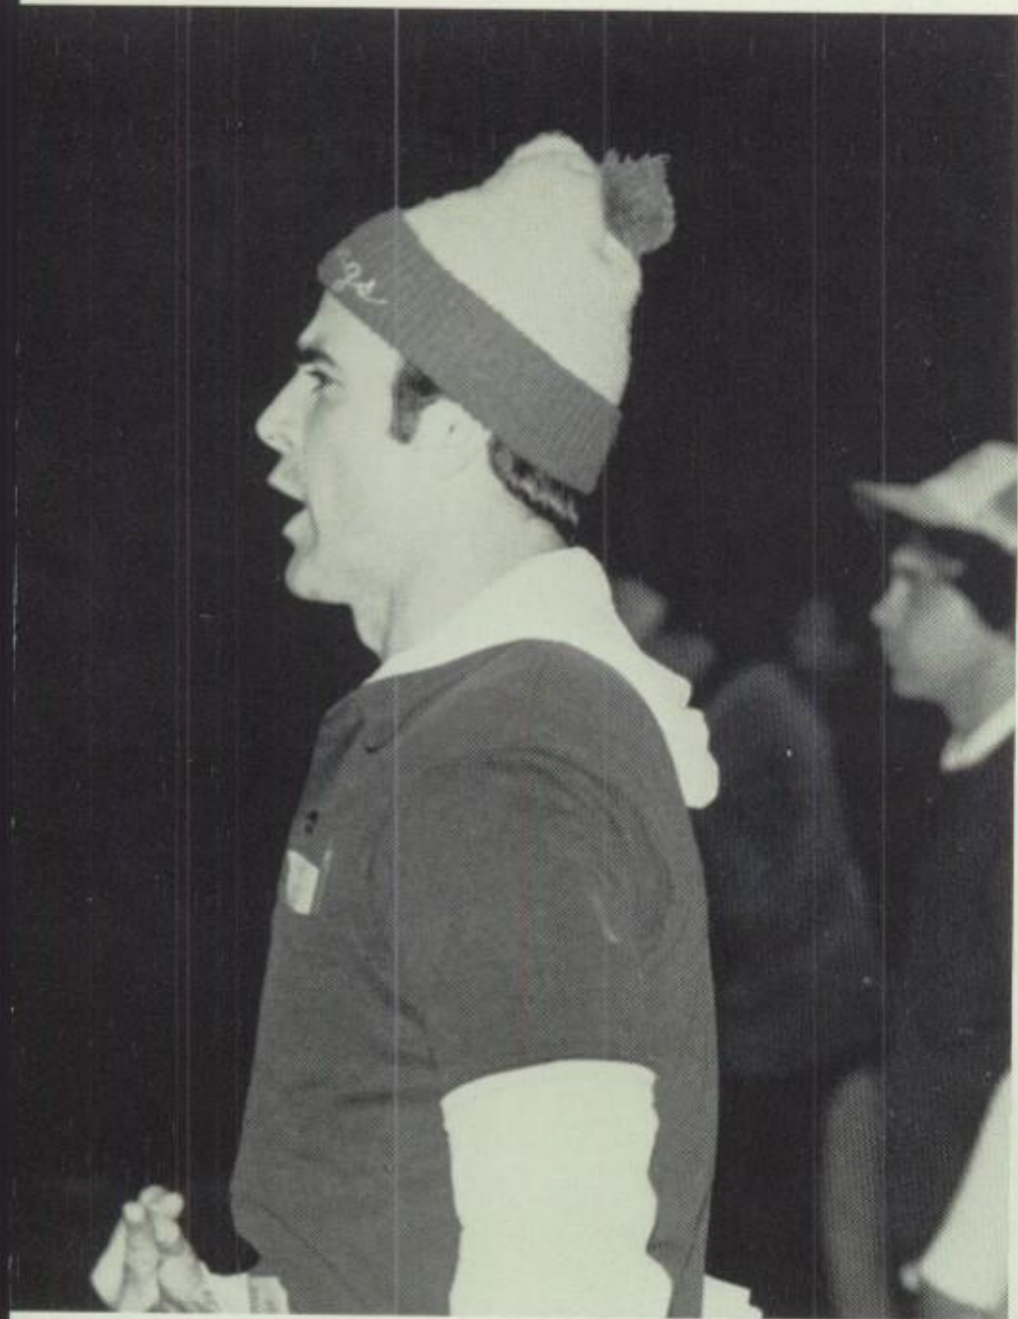

Gridders Display Determination

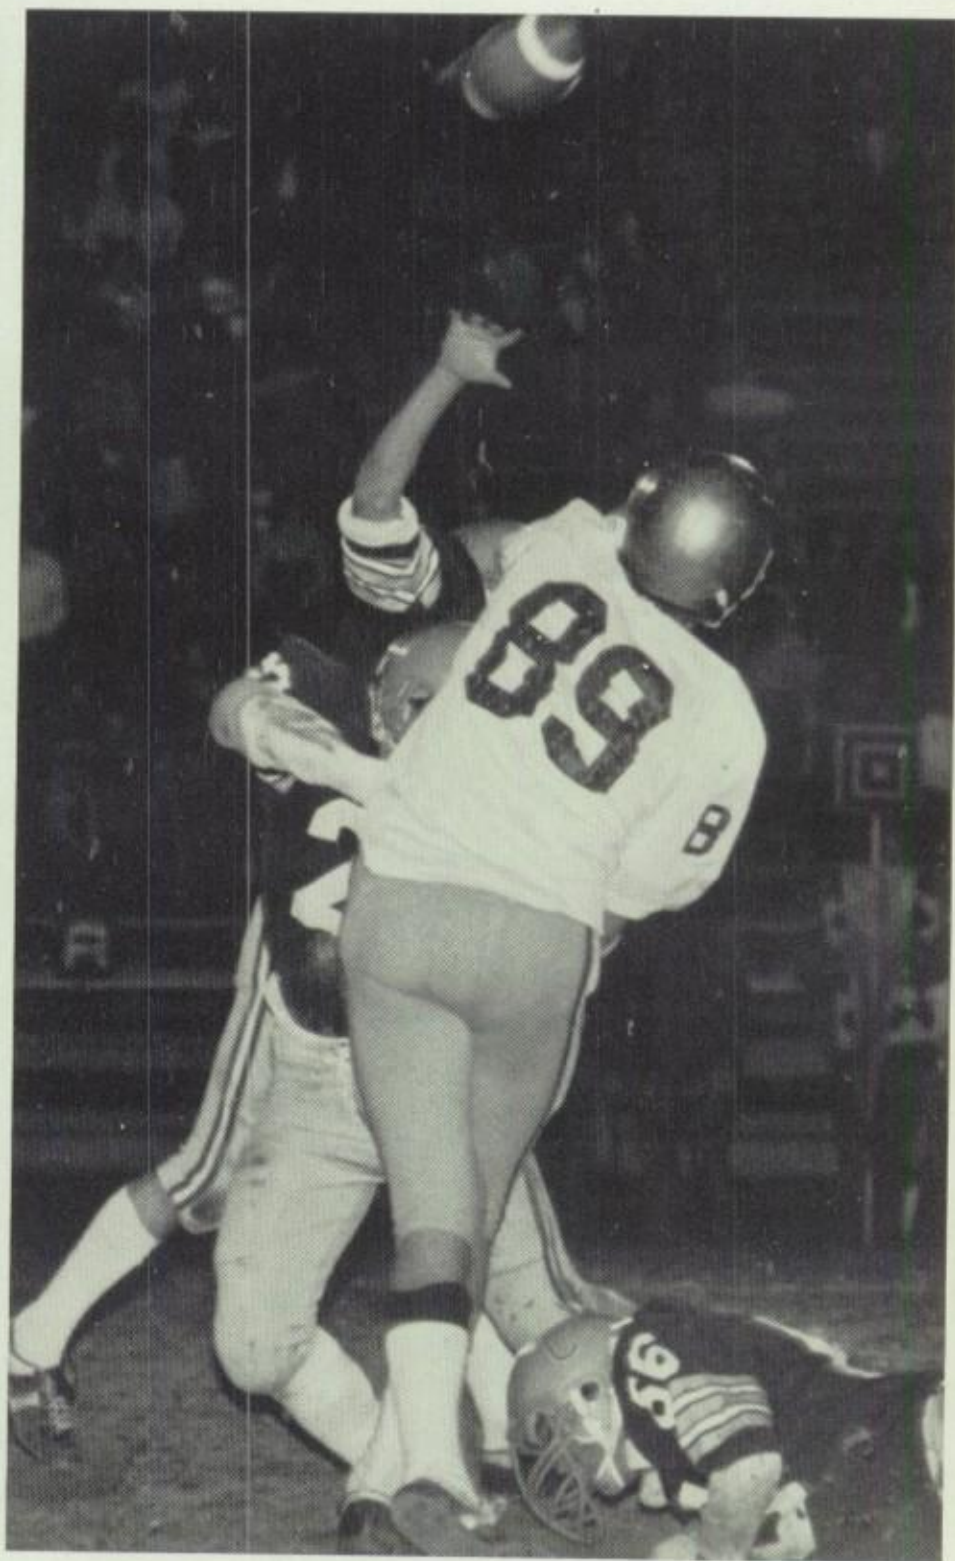

This year, the varsity Viking football team, guided by Coach Morgans, and co-captains John Cerciello, Al Albright, Tom Kinek, and Bob Madeya, showed true Viking spirit throughout the entire season. Even though the season proved to be very rough for the Varsity Vikes, they took each game step by step, never forgetting the meaning of true Viking pride.

JV and Frosh Show Future Talent

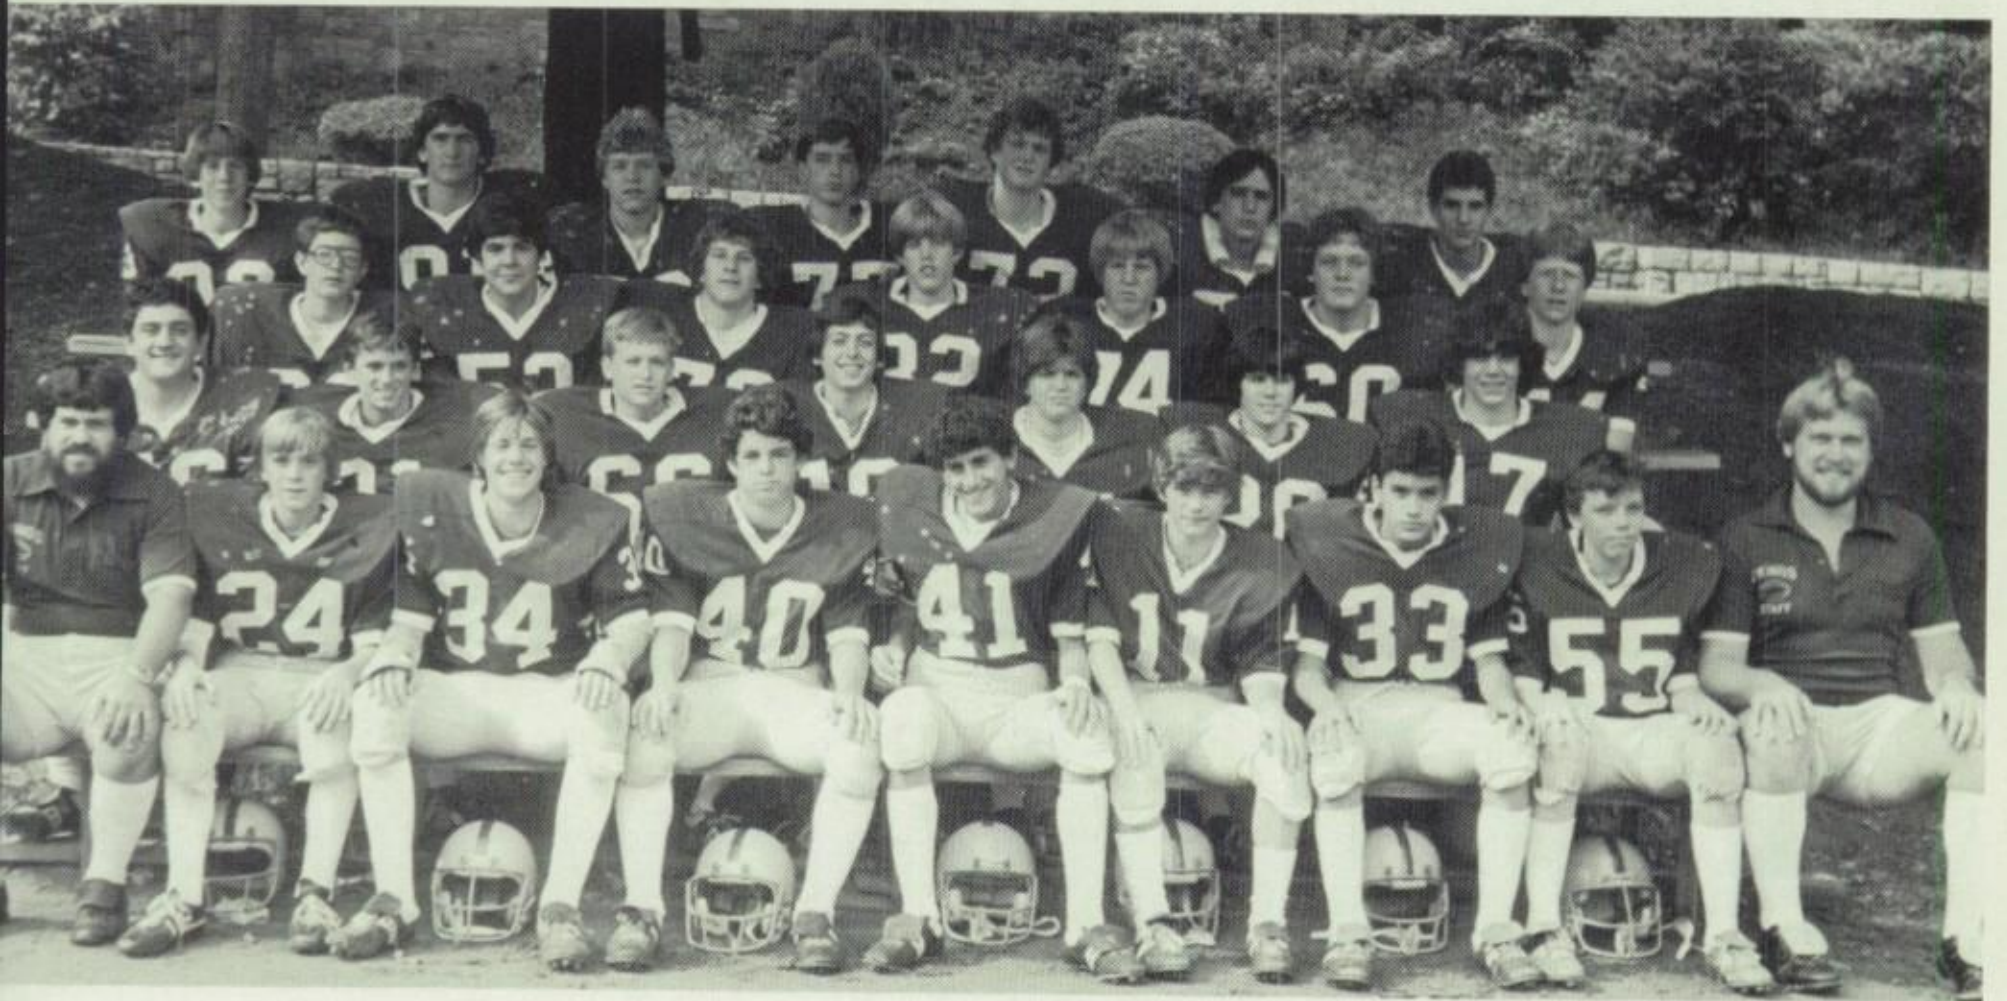

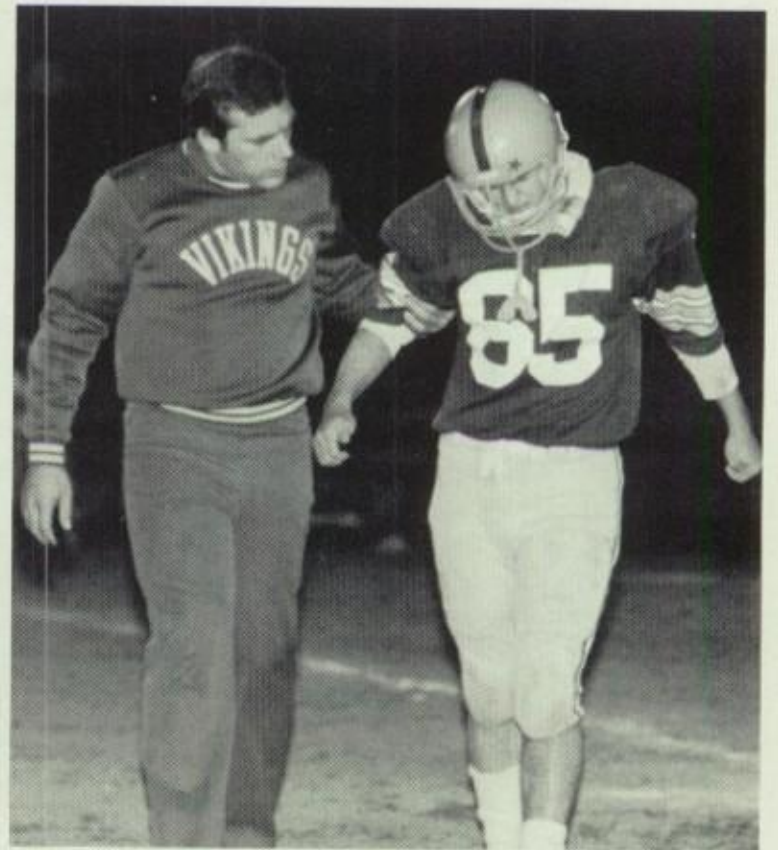

Determination is one word to sum up this year's junior varsity football team. With the coaching ability of Mr. Jeff McGeehin, the team displayed talent and effort in defeating many worthy opponents. They also showed their true Viking colors by tying Whitehall, who had had an undefeated season until they met up with the Vikes.

Vikes Show Skill on Court

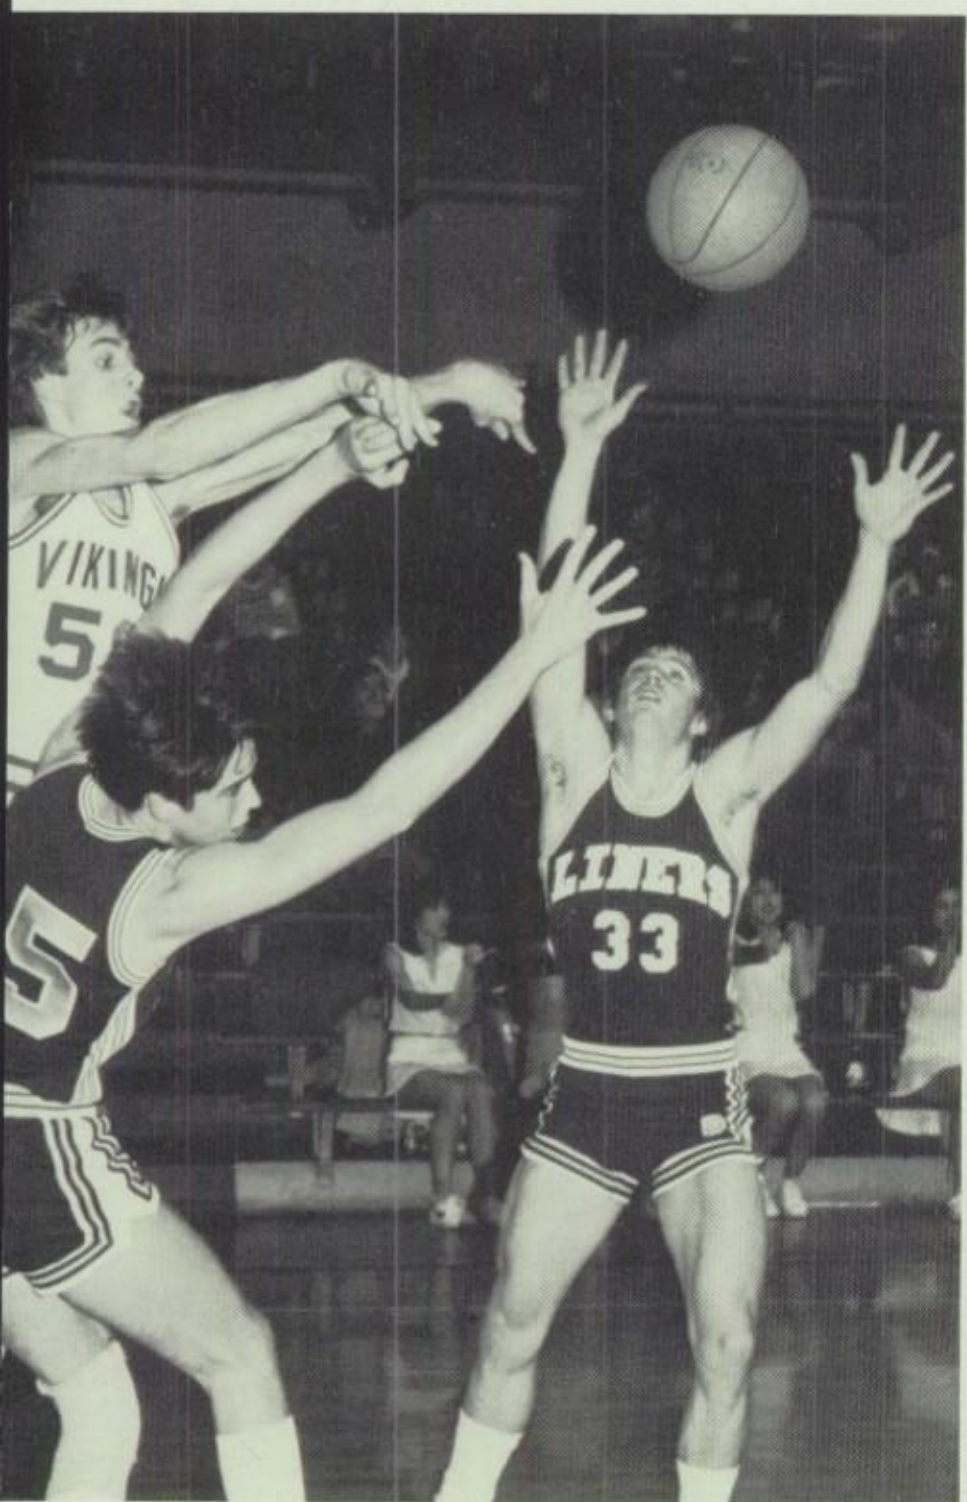

The Viking Cagers, with their vibrant new coach, Mr. Bob Schlosser, and his assistants, Mr. Dennis Ramella and Mr. Jeff McGeehin, have earned respect by defeating top challengers in the East Penn Conference league. The Vikings, led by captain John Ludrof, gave good reason for the "Green Machine" to hoot and holler.

Super Frosh . . . Sweep the Court

First year coach, Mr. Charlie Post, must be proud of his young Cagers. The court really belonged to these naturals. And as far as future seasons are concerned, no one has to worry because these "Frosh" have everything it takes to be true Vikings.

Left: Dave Kulla goes up to bring down a Viking rebound. Below: Neil Boyle goes up for an easy lay-up after a fast break. Bottom: (left to right) Row 1: H. Gallagher, T. Hargadon, T. McCollough, M. Viking Duffers ... Mean on the Green

This year's Viking golfers showed their excellent skills and determination on the course. Mr. Dennis Ramella, the team's supportive coach, helped them along to have a winning season.

Court Conquerors

Under the leadership of Mr. Jeffrey McGeehin, the 1982 boys' tennis team brought forth their skill on the courts. Our future Wimbledon winners participated in a successful season, especially in heated matches against Dieruff, Allen, and Becahi.

Our Future Wimbledon Winners

Under the leadership of Ms. Marie Kinek, the Vikettes showed tennis fans an exciting season this year. Captain Michelle Spinosa helped bring the girls to decisive victories over Easton, Liberty, Northhampton, and Dieruff. But, the most impressive record was held by Sheila O'Donnell, she achieved a record of ten wins and zero losses.

Super Spikers

This year, the Viking volleyball teams, both boys and girls, completed a winning season. Under the skillful coaching ability of Mr. John Rosenberger and Miss Linda Davis respectfully, our "netmen" and "women" have excelled in their sport. This year's "Super Spikers" have proved to us what the meanings of pride, stamina, strength, and determination really are.

Viking "Nine" Show Skill on the Diamond

The 1982 Viking baseball team showed a potent combination of hitting and fielding talents during practice in the spring. With the combined leadership of coaches Shive, Halleman, and Gillis, and the determination and die-hard dedication of the players, the team proved to be annual contenders.

Vikettes Cut the Diamond

Determined female athletes once again headed outdoors to launch the 1982 softball season. The girls team upheld its standing in the EPL, by defeating area opponents in league competition. The Vikettes under the coaching talents of Miss Joann Stanley and Sister Kathleen Beatty, put their best foot forward in order to maintain an exciting season.

This Senior Section has been dedicated to the memory of our classmate and friend Barney Spade.

"No man is an island, entirely to himself. Every man is a piece of the continent. Any man's death diminishes us because we are involved with mankind." The truth of these words is in itself a commentary on Barney Spade.

Death came as an intruder on Aug. 24, 1981. Death invaded our hearts, our homes and our lives. Each of us feels a loneliness, an annoying pain of loss that eats at the heart of those whom "Barnyard" loved and who loved him.

Yet in death we dare to speak of victory. Victory is indeed present through the unending triumph of Christ over death. Only when the last man has died will death be no more. Then will all mankind stand in our Father's Home where there are many dwelling places. And there alive with Christ we will find Barney Spade.

Msgr. John Seitzinger

THE END

The end.
That's what it's called.
But we cannot forget
What happened
Before the end.
The happiness,
The fun,
The sadness of defeat,
We cannot forget
Our friends.
We've laughed with them,
Cried with them,
Cheered with them,
Shared with them —
Feelings
Of victory,
Defeat,
Happiness,
And friendship.
It's called the end,
Because we'll never be
Quite as close
Ever again.
Let's not forget,
What we've done
And the time we spent.
It's called the end,
But let's call it
A beginning . . .

Chris Gruenke
